WILL BE PUBLISHED ON SATURDAY NEXT.

THE BEAUTIFUL WIDOW!

THE BEAUTIFUL WIDOW!

By Mrs. PERCY B. SHELLY,

Widow of Percy B. Shelly, the Poet, and Author of "Frankenstein," etc., etc.

"But if for me thou dost forsake
Some other maid, and rudely break
Her worshipped image from its base,
To give to me the ruined place—"Then fare we well—I'd rather make
My bower upon some lowly lake,
When swallows' sons begin to shine,
Than trust to love so false as thine!"

This will be found on perusal to be one of the most charming books ever issued from the press. One volume, 12mo., cloth, price $2 or 30c. in one volume paper cover, for $1.50.

THE EARLIEST CHURCHES

OF NEW-YORK AND ITS VICINITY.

BY GABRIEL P. DISOSWAY.

"Walk about Zion, and go round about her; tell the towers thereof. Mark ye well her bulwarks, consider her palaces, that ye may tell it to the generations following."—Psalms.

WITH ILLUSTRATIONS.

This elegant volume contains a full record of all the earliest churches in New-York and its vicinity—an authentic, valuable, and highly entertaining history of the early religious movements, from many of which have sprung the most celebrated of our existing churches. The author's researches have been extensive and thorough, and afford a complete record of our early churches.

One elegant crown 8vo. vol. yellow cloth. $2.50

THE WITNESS, No. 1.

"The Witness" is a monthly paper devoted to the diffusion of evangelical truth. It has no sectarian object, and contains nothing but facts. Price 50 cents a year; single numbers 5c each.

The following extracts are made from a multitude of appealing notices:

"I have read through the first number and I am delighted with it; it contains the best消遣 (entertainment) in its frontiers and back pages. The Rev. W. R. Nicholson, D.D., Rector of St. Paul's Church, Boston.

"I shall bring "The Witness" to the attention of my brethren in the ministry, and use what influence I have to secure their cooperation in getting it published. I hope you will be pleased to let me know of your success."—Rev. John Forsyth, D.D., Princeton, N. J.

"I have read with great interest and profit, and I pray that God may give you ability and strength to keep up to its present position as a witness to the truth as it is now."—Rev. R. N. Mifflin, Rector of the Church of the Ascension, Philadelphia.

"I was so fed and fatigued by "The Witness" that I wished all to partake of the feast. I could wish it in every family."—Rev. John Gray, Great Columbia Co., N. Y.

"I have sent a copy of "The Witness" to various publications into the hands of those whom God in his providence has cast my lot. I can labor for the dissemination of your publications and pray for their success."—Rev. James Fyler, D.D., Utica, Mich.
